

Options' posters and presentations at the 5th Global Symposium on Health Systems Research

Date	Time	Room	Presenter	Title
Monday 8th	12 - 2pm	Room ACC 4A	Options, LSHTM, Swiss Tropical Health	Satellite Session: "Lessons from applying systems thinking to research and programme implementation: how to build health systems that leave no one behind"
Wednesday 10th	11 - 12:30pm	Room ACC 4A	Kizito Mukhwana, MANI, Care, Kenya	Oral presentation: Engaging Communities through Community Scorecards to Improve Social Accountability & Health Service Delivery
Wednesday 10th	11 - 12:30pm	ACC room 11C	Kamala Shrestha, NHSSP, Nepal	Lightning session: Adopting a district-wide systemic approach to strengthening maternal and newborn health services in post-disaster context: Experiences from Nepal
Wednesday 10th	1:35pm	Session ID: R1 Poster no: 281	Gladys Ngeno, MANI, Kenya	Poster: Impact of Green Energy Installations on Improving Maternal and Newborn Health in Rural Kenya
Wednesday 10th	2-3:30pm	ACC room 4B	Deborah Thomas, NHSSP	Lightning session: Equity monitoring in a post-disaster context in Nepal: building local ownership, listening to community voices and service provider challenges
Wednesday 10th	3:30pm	Session ID: V1 Poster no: 152	Stephen Yambi, E4A-MamaYe! Kenya	Poster: Adolescents, Money and Family Planning: The Story from Bungoma, Kenya
Thursday 11th	1pm	ACC Hall 2M Poster no: 364	Cindy Carlson, MHSP-TA	Poster: Embracing the political realities of HSS – How to apply thinking and working politically in systems strengthening
Thursday 11th	3:35pm	ACC Hall 2M Poster no: 242	Peter Kaimenyi, MANI, Kenya	Poster: Effect of Human Resource for Health mentorship on emergency obstetrics skills transfer of lower cadre health care workers
Friday 12th	9am	Room ACC 4A	Alice Sabino, Options, London	Lightning session: A reproductive health voucher scheme can support the public health system and reach the most vulnerable in conflict settings: Lessons from Yemen
Friday 12th	10:30am	Session ID B3 Poster no: 115	Stephen Yambi, E4A-MamaYe! Kenya	Poster: Money for what? Making sure community needs are visible to the Global Financing Facility
Friday 12th	11 - 12:30pm	ACC room 11C	Matthew Nviiri, Malawi	Lightning session: Can strategic purchasing of health services from the private sector drive value for money? Evidence from the Results Based Financing programme in Malawi.
-	-	-	Sitaram Prasai, NHSSP, Nepal	E-poster: Institutionalising Leaving No One Behind through the platform of hospital based Social Service Units in Nepal
-	-	-	Maureen Dar lang, NHSSP, Nepal	E-poster: Excess facility-based C-Section rates in Nepal highlights challenge in harnessing private sector capacity to meet maternal health goals in low-income countries
-	-	-	Mark Malema, MHSP-TA, Malawi	E-poster: Formalising Government and Faith-based agreements enables Malawi to implement UHC objectives